

Bajhol, Solan-Oachghat-Kumarhatti Highway, Solan (HP)

Advertisement for Junior Research Fellow (HPSCST&E funded Project)

Applications are invited from eligible candidates for the post of Junior Research Fellow in a HPSCST&E funded project

Name of the project: “Development of cheap and safe water purification strategy using Moringa oleifera seeds for the rural population of Himachal Pradesh”.

Duration of Project: Upto December 2019

Name of the Post: Junior Research Fellow (JRF)

Essential Qualification: M.Sc./B.Tech./M.Tech (Biotechnology / Microbiology / Biochemistry / LifeSciences) with minimum 60% marks. NET (CSIR/UGC/ICAR) qualified candidates will be preferred.

Desirable experience: Research experience in the field of Biotechnology/Biochemistry

Age Limit: 28 Years

Emoluments: Rs. 15,000 per month (Fixed)

Candidate possessing the requisites qualification and experience can appear before selection committee as per the schedule given below along with a copy of latest CV, copy of all marksheets, certificates and testimonials. Candidates are also requested to bring all the original documents for verification. For more information contact Dr Saurabh Kulshrestha (sourabhkulshreshtha@shooliniuniversity.com) or visit <http://www.shooliniuniversity.com>

Date of interview: 30/01/2018

Time: 10:00 am

Venue: Shoolini University, Bajhol, Solan

Dr Saurabh Kulshrestha

Principal investigator